Didn't order a new UUCL t-shirt? No problem! We ordered extras and they are available for $10. If the cost is an issue, let me know. We've got you covered. ;-) See Shannon VanLandingham in the lobby or email at shannyvan@gmail.com.

WANTED: Objects and Ideas. Let's fill the (lockable) glass case that member Daniel Bontempo donated to the aesthetics team. We would like to show works of art such as jewelry and pottery. Do you know an artist who might be interested in exhibiting pieces at the UUCL? We are considering a show of chalices and perhaps UU jewelry. Would you be willing to lend us something? If so, please contact Betty Baron,baronbetty@yahoo.com.

Black Lives Matter Wristbands are available for you by the entrance to the sanctuary, size adult and youth. Please help yourself and leave a donation if you are able to.

Lawrence Interfaith Refugee & Immigrant Ministry (LIRIM) will show Salam Neighbor, an award-winning documentary about Syrian refugees, on Sun., Sept. 17, 4:00-6:00 pm, at the Lawrence Public Library auditorium. More than 4.8 million people have fled the atrocities of war in Syria. The film makers tell the refugees' stories with dignity, documenting the trauma as well as the untapped potential possessed by our neighbors. Come see this extraordinary film!
