

UUCL Weekly Update

This Sunday, July 30

9:30 AM - "Quo Vadis UUA," Graham Kreicker

Graham Kreicker will brief us on the earth shaking developments that impacted UUA since last October, including General Assembly, and our future prospects.

Art in Founder's Hall: Peter Johnson's work includes drawings, paintings, and prints. His show will be up through August 27.

11:00 AM - "Sorry Seems to Be the Hardest Word"- Rebecca Gant with Worship Associate Travis Wells.

We tell our kids "just say you're sorry!" Why is it so hard for us to do the same? How can we find ways to heal the large and small injuries we inflict on those around us? And how does our ability to apologize help us make our society more just? Come join us as we explore apologies and their role in healing the world.

Sunday Faith Development classes

For Adults at 9:30 am

NO Adult Faith Development classes today.

For children at 9:30 am – all ages including Middle Youth (Spirit Play Center)

Our summer RE curriculum combines paint and rocks with our 7 principles, hide and seek and community outreach. Best of all it is multigenerational! Anyone can join our children for a quick discussion on one of our 7 principles to get ideas flowing for words and images that affirm and represent our principles. Painting uplifting, empowering and even fun images is part of the fun! Near the end of June (when we have painted “a ton” of rocks) we will begin to ‘hide’ our rocks throughout Lawrence for others to ‘discover’, spreading joy and kindness throughout Lawrence. Social media will help us spread the word about the gifts we will be sharing. Finders can participate in the fun too, through photos/stories and possibly re-hiding the rock. Today’s focus and discussion before painting is on the Indigo promise (6rd principle) “Build a Fair and Just World”.

Middle Youth - Grades 6 to 8 (Youth Room)

Michelle and Melissa are taking the summer off! All middle youth should attend either the Program in the sanctuary or join Children’s RE (UUCL ROCKS! Or Summer Science) in the Spirit Play Center.

UUCL Women's Group will meet at Ann Alexander's home, 3101 W. 27th St., on Saturday afternoon, August 12, from 2-4PM. This time we'll be learning different ways to wear scarves - bring a scarf, long or square, so we can all experiment to see what we like best. Also, bring a friend, bring yourselves ready for an enjoyable afternoon, and bring a snack to share if you wish. All are welcome, especially the younger and newer among us. Contact Lynne Bodle, 843-8263 for more information or for a ride.

Faith in Action: A check has been sent to the Peggy Bowman Fund, recipient for May, in the amount of $1,440.73. Graham Kreicker will present a copy of this check to the president of the organization who will speak at the Program in August. June Community Connection amount will be reported as soon as the information is available. Thank you, congregation!

Thanks to Valerie Roper for her hard work on organizing the tamales sale for Centro Hispano including announcement, phone communication, emails and delivery. Centro Hispano is benefitting from the sale, as revenue will go to a fund for scholarships

Black Lives Matter Wristbands are located in baskets just inside the door of the sanctuary.

July 22-23 & 29-30, Community-wide school supplies collection drive! Collection boxes will be in the coat rack area in the lobby. Please bring in items for school to distribute to qualifying families in Douglas County. 1200 Douglas Co. children will receive these supplies. Volunteers will be needed to sort collected supplies and pack the supplies into backpacks July 24, 31, Aug 4, 7; and to help with distribution of the supplies on Aug 9-11. To volunteer or for more information, go to www.volunteerdouglascounty.org

August 21 in Topeka: Kansas Peoples Assembly and KIFA, Kansas Interfaith Alliance, will host a nationally-known faith leader. Stay tuned for details!

July Community Connection: Healthcare Access Our 29-year-old mission is to serve as a welcoming health home in Douglas County for persons with limited financial means. We create access to a continuum of community-based services to promote health and well-being. Through an active collaborative spirit we advocate for healthy people and communities. Our clinic provides comprehensive care with three medical provider teams, counseling, referral and wellness services.
