

UUCL Weekly Update

This Sunday, Nov 5

Program, 9:30 AM - John Musgrave on Vietnam

Vietnam war hero and anti-war hero, John Musgrave of Baldwin City, will speak at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Lawrence at 9:30 on Sunday, 5 November. The former Marine was featured in the recent Ken Burns documentary of the Vietnam war that was shown on PBS TV recently. He also was the featured speaker at a recent KCPT TV outreach event at Liberty Hall.

Worship Service, 11:00 AM - “To Stand on the Threshold,” Rev. Jill Jarvis with Worship Associate Chris Brown

Our congregation stands on the threshold, waiting for something familiar to end, and for something new to inspire our vision. The time in between calls us into deep soul-searching and a process of discernment, new awareness of both pain and possibility, and hard decisions about the future of UUCL and Unitarian Universalism in Lawrence. Join us this Sunday as our Minister offers perspective and reflection on her recently announced resignation, and what lies ahead for our congregation.

All families gather in the sanctuary. After the Story for All Ages and Meditation (about 11:15), children under 9 will be sung out of the service and will go to the Beatrix Potter Room for play, friendship building led by Jayden Schwartz.
