Art in Founders Hall Photographer Earl Richardson's tintype portraits will be up through Oct. 29. Having studied photojournalism at KU and worked for several newspapers, Earl returned to KU and earned a law degree. After several years working as a lawyer, Earl realized that his primary professional passion was for photography.

Hospitality Teams Thank you all who have shown up to greet our members, friends and guests, made coffee, set up snacks, handed out programs, and said YES to whatever chore was needed. It takes a village to keep the congregation going! Teams will continue in 2018. The congregation will meet for a potluck at 12:30 Sunday Jan. 28 to discuss updates on Teams and hospitality functions.

Faith in Action: the September recipient was Kansas Equality Coalition. Donations will be counted; check cut; check either sent to the coalition or delivered in person; there will be a report on the method of delivery in a future bulletin.

Didn't order a new UUCL t-shirt? No problem! We ordered extras and they are available for $10. If the cost is an issue, let me know. We've got you covered. ;-) See Shannon VanLandingham in the lobby or email at shannyvan@gmail.com.
