

Art in Founders' Hall: In her Collage Paintings, Anita Markley captures the beauty, subtlety, and complexity of cultural interaction and architecture. She also expresses her appreciation of music and nature. Her show will remain up through Feb. 28.

Food, Fun, and Fellowship. Wed. Feb. 10, at 6 p.m. Guest chefs Ted and Judy Wilson will be offering beef brisket, potato casserole, salad, cake, and cookies. There will also be vegetarian lasagna and mac and cheese. Cleanup help is appreciated, as always! Both before and after dinner: Adult Enrichment Classes, Youth Meeting, and Choir. See website for details.

Stop, Look and Pledge! Our Annual Stewardship Drive got up a full head of steam last Sunday and our Success Express started chugging up the track with $55,000 in pledges. Check the lobby wall to see how many more car loads have been added. Meanwhile, please respond positively when your dedicated steward calls regarding your donation for next fiscal year. We need the generous participation of everyone to reach our goal and with you on board, we know we can!

Chicago Acoustic Duo Sugar Still, <http://sugarstill.com/>, featuring conservatory-trained violinist-vocalist Sarah Blick and acclaimed singer-songwriter Charlie Cheney, is coming to the UFL on Wed., Feb., 17 at 7 p.m. Blick and Cheney share a love of Americana, roots music, bluegrass, and gypsy jazz. Tickets are $10 on Sun. mornings or on the “Concerts” page of our Web site.

Stretching Classes from Feb. 7 through May 22 with Annemarie and Kristen:

New Gentle Stretching for Seniors, Sun., 4-4:30 p.m. Stretching can be done seated in a chair, standing, or sitting or lying on the floor. We will explore whatever is most comfortable for you.

Yoga for All Sun., 4:45-6 p.m. Beginning to advanced yogis find peace, stillness, happiness while increasing flexibility, strength and balance through the exploration of yoga postures, breathing techniques and philosophy.

Stretching, deep breathing, and yoga can increase blood flow to joints, as well as flexibility, balance, and feelings of well being.

Save the Date! Our annual auction will be Sat., April 23. The theme is “Puttin’ on the Ritz.” Don’t be a lollygagger; put it on your calendar, dust off your glad rags, and join us for a swell time. We won’t take any wooden nickels, but we will take cash, checks, and credit cards. Tickets will be on sale soon for a sawbuck ($10) It would be the cat’s meow if you were thinking about what you could donate for the silent or live auction--a basket, or party. Copacetic?

Buy Your Gift Cards Today Make your shopping easier while boosting our treasury. Buy Hy-Vee, Checkers, and Merc gift cards today and use them for your grocery purchases, gas at Hy-Vee or Zarco stations. Every $100 card you get from the UFL_puts $6 in our treasury. Last year we earned over $7,000.

Amazon Link for Your Online Shopping A link on the UFL home page connects directly to the Amazon Web site. For purchases, including gift cards, Amazon donates to the UFL.

February Community Connection: Ecumenical Campus Ministries has served KU students and our community for decades. As funding from other denominations dwindled and disappeared, our congregation stepped forward to become a sustaining sponsor of the ECM. Our Feb. donations will augment our basic budget line item support to the ECM at this critical juncture and help assure the ECM's continued success.
